About M.P. Evans

M.P. Evans Group PLC is a responsible producer of certified sustainable crude palm oil, with plantations and mills in five Indonesian provinces: Aceh, Bangka Belitung, East Kalimantan, North Sumatra and South Sumatra.

Demand for vegetable oil has increased steadily for several decades as populations and incomes have grown, and that demand is expected to continue increasing for the foreseeable future. Palm oil is the largest of the world's major vegetable oils, by volume and international trade, and it is the most efficient to produce. M.P. Evans has been investing in sustainable Indonesian palm oil for the long term and has the operational excellence to deliver increasing returns from its high-quality estates and mills.

M.P. Evans is a member of the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil (RSPO), the leading organisation for sustainable palm oil, and it develops and manages its plantations in adherence to its stringent social and environmental criteria. The Company was also awarded the Green Economy Mark by the London Stock Exchange in recognition of its sustainable practices and positive contribution to the global green economy.

Headquartered in the UK, M.P. Evans' shares are traded on the London Stock Exchange's Alternative Investment Market.
